

RANDY SCOTT

Randy Scott is a professional musician, record producer and composer. He has performed and/or recorded with Michael Powell (writer and producer for Anita Baker, Patti Labelle, Randy Crawford and others), J. Moss & Paul Allen (writers and producers for Boys II Men, Brittany Spears, N'Sync and others), Hiroshima, Nancy Wilson, Grover Washington, Jr., Fred Hammond, The Clark Sisters, Rance Allen, Dietrich Haddon, Men of Standard, Kirk Franklin, Norman Brown, Kirk Whalum, Bob James, Marion Meadows and many other artists on almost every major recording label.

As a three-time winner of nationally televised, It's Showtime At The Apollo, $10,000 winner of The Hennessy Jazz Search and protégé of his friend and mentor, the late Grover Washington, Jr., Randy Scott is ready to take his place among the music industry's elite. Randy was requested by the White House to play for former U.S. President, William J. Clinton, and was awarded the NAACP 2001 Walter Francis White Service Award.

His 4th CD entitled, "Breathe" remained in the top 40 nationally for five months, and is being sold by most major retailers and record stores nationally, as well as online through iTunes and Amazon.com. In 2008, Randy produced four songs on Vickie Winans' CD, "Woman To Woman". He also worked on her current single, "How I Got Over", which debuted at #1 on Billboard a few months ago. Randy also produced a CD for jazz guitarist, Tim Bowman, which went #1 record nationally on the Smooth Jazz Charts and Billboard. His success as a record producer ultimately led to his signing a new record deal with Trippin-n-Rhythm Records, which is distributed by Sony. Randy performed as their new artist in Dubai recently, and plans to do a return performance there soon.

Randy has been awarded two Gold records, two Platinum records and one Multi-platinum record for his work on a Gospel Wow compilation CD and recordings with Grammy award winner, Kirk Franklin.

He has a Bachelor's degree in music education from Michigan State University and a Master's degree from Wayne State University. Upon graduating from MSU, Randy established his own music production company and recording studio, and continues to record, write, produce and teach music in the Detroit area.

Randy attributes all of his success and accomplishments to his belief and faith in God.

RANDY SCOTT QUOTES / PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

Randy Scott is an accomplished musician, composer, producer, singer, saxophonist, keyboardist and educator. Randy is technically skilled in classical, jazz, gospel, R&B and contemporary pop music.

Self-titled CD, "Randy Scott" features theme song for "The Color of Money", which aired on two nationally televised networks.

Three-time winner on "It's Showtime at the Apollo", a nationally televised program, sharing the stage with such stars as Mark Curry, Jermaine Jackson, Stacy Latisaw, Lisa Stansfield, Ice T., and the show's former host, Sinbad. April 1993, awarded top honors in the Hennessey / WJZZ "Best of Detroit" Jazz Search.

Performed with: His mentor, Grover Washington, Jr.; Two-time grammy award winning singer, William Warfield, Everette Harp, Najee, Hiroshima, Norman Brown and others.

Recorded with: grammy award winner, Michael J. Powell. Saxophone solo performed live on a nationally televised broadcast of The 700 Club. With his band, performed on the Mitch Albom Radio Show.

Requested by the White House to play for former President of the United States, Bill Clinton. Performed opening night at The 1997 (Emmy winning) Detroit Montreux Jazz Festival and The 1998 Detroit Montreux Jazz Festival, both programs televised on CBS.

Opened shows for - Comedians: Sinbad, Tommy Davidson and Simply Marvelous; R&B recording artists: Jennifer Holliday, Angela Bofil, Regina Belle and Glen Jones; and Gospel recording artists: The Clark Sisters; Jazz recording artists: Norman Brown, Hiroshima, Nancy Wilson, Ramsey Lewis, Najee; Motown's the Four Tops, and others.

Performance venues: The Palace of Auburn Hills for Detroit Pistons' games; Comerica Park for Detroit Tiger's baseball games; Cobo Hall during the NAACP's annual dinner; The renowned Apollo Theater in New York City, Las Vegas Hilton Hotel, Fox Theater, State Theater, Orchestra Hall, Ohio University, Detroit Montreux Jazz Festival, Duke University, Michigan Taste Fest, and more.

Quotes: Grover Washinton, Jr. - "...you are more than ready for this!"; William Warfield remarked that he's heard great things about Randy.; Sinbad - "The boy is bad!"; Marvin Winans - "You are destined to perform with performers much greater than I."; Detroit's former Mayor, Dennis Archer - "Randy is an incredible talent."; Donnie Simpson - "The young man is fantastic. Look out Kenny G."

Randy attributes all of his success and accomplishments to his belief and faith in God.

RANDY SCOTT
Saxophonist, Composer, Producer